What you need to know:

The Police Treatment Centres (PTC) is a police charity which provides two first class residential treatment centres in Harrogate and Auchterarder. Donating and eligible police family can access our residential and online physiotherapy programmes together with our residential psychological wellbeing support.

The Police Treatment Centres offer access to a multidisciplinary team of experts with the time to listen, assess and treat alongside access to superb fitness, wellbeing and hospitality facilities.

Staff who signed up and commenced payment to PTC in January 2024, qualified for an introductory offer allowing them to access treatment or support from July 2024.

Staff commencing donation to the PTC after January 2024, must be donating for twelve months before they can access support.

More information can be found on PTC website: <https://www.thepolicetreatmentcentres.org/>

The Police Children's Charity (TPCC) is a police charity which provides financial support if the donating parent passes away, their partner passes away or if the donating parent has to be medically retired from the job. We are also able to offer 'grants for all' which any donating officer or staff member can access for their children. These are a child counselling or an ex-gratia wellbeing grant.

A full list of support is available on the website: www.thepolicechildrenscharity.org/get-help/grants/
