

Your Legacy, Their Safe Haven

Why is a gift in my Will to the PTC so important?

In 1897, we made it our responsibility to provide treatment and support for injured and ill Police Family members. It's a promise we have upheld to the thousands of Officers attending our class leading treatment Centres since then.

Leaving a gift to the Police Treatment Centres helps to ensure that we can continue to be there for future generations of Police Family members; to provide treatment, rehabilitation & support when it's needed most.

Gifts in Wills provide us with the much needed funds to be able to provide the best level of physical and psychological care to our Police Family patients; whether this be the most up to date equipment, superb facilities or the best team.

For every £1 donated to the PTC, 90p goes directly back into patient care. Any amount of gift will help the person behind the uniform;

£20 can fund 1 complementary therapy session

£25 can fund 1 training programme assessment

£35 can fund 1 session with a counsellor

£50 can fund 1 physio session for a patient.

Why should I leave a gift in my Will to the PTC?

How do I leave a gift in my Will to the PTC?

It is easy to leave a gift in your Will. When making or updating your Will, you just need to let your solicitor know your intentions. There is no obligation to let us know if you do decide to leave a gift to the PTC.

If you do decide to leave a gift to the PTC, all you have to do is give your solicitor our registered address and charity number and your solicitor will do the rest.

- Your family and loved ones come first but we hope that, once you have provided for them, if the time is right, you may also wish to remember the PTC.
 - We won't pressure you; writing your will is a very personal matter and a decision to make in your own time, but we are here to help should you wish to discuss leaving a gift in your will to the PTC.
 - We respect your privacy; you do not need to let us know if you decide to remember the PTC in your will. However, if you do decide to let us know, we will keep any details you share confidential.
 - We will ensure your gift makes a lasting impact and will use it with the greatest of care in accordance with your wishes.

Our promise to you
